

BONUS JOKES

Why did the scientist install a knocker on his front door?

He wanted to win the no-bell prize.

What do prisoners use to call each other?

Cell phones.

Why does it take so long to run from second base to third base?

There's a short stop along the way.

Why did Silly Billy never eat bananas?

He could never find the zipper.

ACTIVITY

What kind of bears like word jokes? Pun-da bears! Try writing your own puns to make your friends and family laugh!

Some puns use a word that sounds like another word. Others use a word that has two different meanings. Many puns use a question to set up the joke. The answer is the pun.

Question: How do turtles call each other?

Punny answer: On shellphones!

First, think of a word to base your pun on. Come up with a list of words that rhyme or sound like your word. Do they make up a longer word that could be part of the joke?

Example: shell

My word: .....

Example: bell, fell, sell, tell, cell...cellphone!

My word sounds like:.....

.....

Come up with a question to set up your joke. Then, deliver your punny punchline!

.....

My question

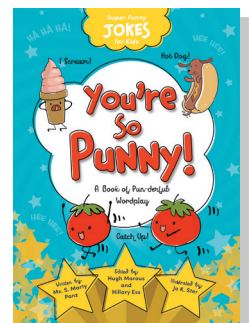

.....

My punchline

Practice telling your joke to friends and family!

 sequoia
kids media

978-1-64996-194-5