After you are done reading the story, think about what each of the three pigs did with their houses and how they outsmarted the wolf. Be sure to look back at both the pictures and the words. Now it's time to answer these questions and talk about the story. After you read each question, choose the best answer or think of your own.

1.) In the beginning of the story, what big decision does each pig have to make?

What to eat for dinner.

What material to build their house with.

When to go to the store.

Something else?

2.) How do you think the three pigs felt inside the brick house?

They were worried the wolf would get in.

They were scared the house would fall down.

They felt safe behind the strong bricks.

Something else?

3.) At the end the wolf tried to come down the chimney of the brick house. What did the pigs do next?

They lit a fire in the fireplace.

They ran from the house.

They hid in the basement.

Something else?

4.) After reading about each of the pigs and their houses, what would you build your house out of?

Sticks

Brick

Straw

Something else?
