How do I write a knock-knock joke?

Knock-knock jokes all follow the same pattern. The joke teller (you!) comes up with a word to answer the question "who's there?" Then that word is part of a longer word or phrase. This longer sentence is the punchline. It's what makes your joke funny!

First, pick a word. You could use the names of people you know. You could use your favorite animal or food.

What word did you pick? Example: Noah

My word:

What does your word sound like? What does it rhyme with?

Example: Noah sounds like know a

My word sounds like:.....

Then, you'll need to come up with the rest of the word or phrase.

Example: Noah (know a) great knock-knock joke?

My punchline:.....

Now fill in the joke!

Knock, knock!

Who's there?

.....

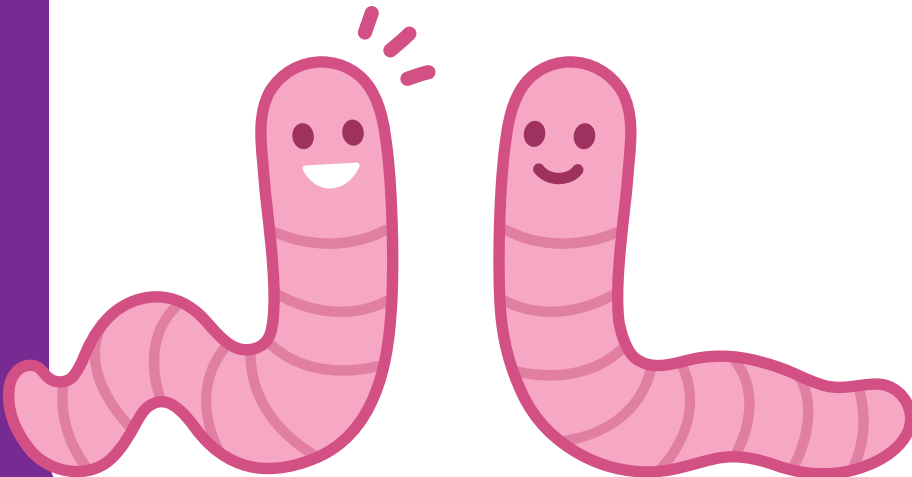

(My word)

..... who?

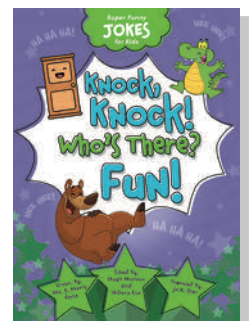

(My word)

.....!

(My punchline)
