

The Mask That Loved to Count

9781649960047

The mask counts things when it is waiting to be chosen. What is something you like to do to feel calm and relaxed?

At the end of the story, the mask realizes that its job is to give people hope. When someone you care about is feeling discouraged, what do you do or say to give them hope? Draw a comic strip showing this.

Is there an object that you like to look at, think about, or hold when you are feeling discouraged? What is it?

It might be a surprise to read a story told by a mask. What is a familiar story that you would like to hear from a different character's point of view (for example, Frozen from Olaf's point of view)?

What are some important ways your family and community have kept each other safe during the pandemic?
