

What makes each year beautiful?

The books in A Beautiful Community showcase concepts and figures that make the world's many intersecting communities beautiful. Continue to celebrate the achievements of these figures throughout the year with these downloadable posters! Each month highlights a different community and just some of its members who are working to build an even brighter future.

9798765403020

A Is for Athlete!

From A to Z, meet the women who changed the sports game and practice the qualities it takes to make a player truly great! With inspiring language and vibrant illustrations, this alphabet book introduces readers to the exciting world of athletics and the empowering women who have helped shape it.

9798765403037

E Is for Earth!

From A to Z, explore our amazing planet and how you can help care for it in this introduction to going green! With inspiring language and vibrant illustrations, this alphabet book introduces readers to the exciting world of environmental activism and the big and small steps that children can take to help protect the earth.

9798765403044

J Is for Justice!

From A to Z, discover your power to speak up for what you believe in and change the world! With empowering language and vibrant illustrations, this alphabet book calls readers to action with big and small steps that children can take to lead the way and become the next generation of activists.

9798765403051

V Is for Votes!

From A to Z, celebrate the people and ideas of the United States suffrage movement, which turned VOTES FOR WOMEN from a rallying cry into a reality!