

National Native American Heritage Month makes November beautiful!

During this month, we celebrate the Indigenous American peoples and honor the countless ways they make the world a more beautiful place!

Sarah James

Activist Sarah James is a native Neets'aii Gwich'in from Alaska. She has worked to protect her homelands, particularly the Arctic National Wildlife refuge and the Porcupine Caribou herd that lives there from oil development.

Dallas Goldtooth

is an environmental activist and performing artist from the Dakota and Dine tribes of North Dakota. He led campaigns against the Keystone XL and Dakota Access pipelines.

Zitkála-Šá

Zitkála-Šá, of the Yankton Dakota Sioux, was a writer, musician, and activist who fought for Native American suffrage.
